- Ability to work independently, as part of a team, and under direct supervision
- Well organized, detail oriented, and highly professional
- United States citizenship or declared intention to become a U.S. citizen
- Adult--must have attained age 21 unless prohibited by any applicable law
- People-oriented, having the ability to work well with adult volunteers, community and business leaders, and representatives of other organizations while being culturally competent.
- Subscribe to its principles and standards of the Boy Scouts of America
- Be approved to receive a professional Scouting commission
- Be able to work from Scout office, the community, and home
- Flexible schedule with ability to work more than 40 hours per week if needed and ability to work nights and weekends when needed to achieve positive objectives
- Must be a self-starter with a strong work ethic and ability to multi-task.
- Valid driver's license and ability to be insured with reliable transportation
- Be able to lift 30lbs, sit for prolonged times, and work from a computer for prolonged times
- Be able to participate in outdoor activities
- Be willing to live in service area

RESPONSIBILITIES

The District Executive is an entry-level position that has responsibilities that are broad and varied. Duties include promoting, supervising, and working through adult volunteers including parents and community leaders. Different aspects of the position include:

- Sales. The executive is responsible through volunteers for extending Scout programs to schools, religious, civic, fraternal, educational, or other community-based organizations.
- Service. The executive provides quality service through timely communication, regular meetings, training events and activities.
- Fundraising. Working with volunteers, executives recruit leadership for the Friends of Scouting and fundraising campaign efforts to meet the financial needs of the council.
- Administration. The District Executive administers the Scouting program in the assigned district service area.
- Public Relations. The District Executives must be a good role model and must recognize the importance of good working relationships with other professionals and with volunteers. Scouting depends on community support and acceptance. Professional leaders must have good communication skills and be able to tell Scouting's story to the public.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

- The Boy Scouts of America offers a competitive starting salary and medical plan.
- Automobile and cell phone allowance provided
