Outreach Notice
Daniel Boone National Forest, Cumberland Ranger District
Red River Gorge, Stanton KY or Morehead KY
Forestry Aids & Information Receptionist

March 4, 2013

Job Vacancy: The Daniel Boone National Forest, Cumberland Ranger District, will soon be filling several temporary positions. The selected applicants will serve as GS-0462 Forestry Aids or GS-0303 Informational Receptionist. The GS-0462 positions will have possible duty stations in Stanton or Morehead, KY. The GS-0303 Informational Receptionist position works in Visitor Services at the Gladie Cultural Environmental Learning Center near Stanton. The work schedule is full-time and the salary ranges from $10.95-$11.95/hour based on education and experience. The start dates can range from early April to late May 2013. The end date will be sometime in late summer or fall. Actual start/end dates will be finalized when the final candidates are selected. No government housing is available; rental housing is available in the surrounding area.

The Positions: Duties primarily include recreation and trail maintenance activities on the Cumberland Ranger District though other duties may be assigned. The Informational Receptionist position will staff the Gladie Center front desk, answer visitors’ questions, conduct environmental education programs, and work with the backcountry rangers in the Red River Gorge. The candidates will work closely with Forest recreation and wilderness and interpretation staff. The positions will require working outdoors in various terrains and weather conditions. Interested applicants must possess a valid driver’s license.
