The Western Recorder is looking for an associate editor who is a capable news reporter and writer, creative page designer, and skilled photographer. Specifically, the experienced journalist must:

- Manage weekly production of the newspaper, including page design and layout;
- Have a solid understanding of news design principles and competence with Adobe InDesign;
- Generate well-written news and feature stories, as assigned;
- Demonstrate ability to take quality photos and edit using Adobe Photoshop;
- Supervise the work of freelance writers and photographers, as needed;
- Select and edit news articles and feature stories, in consultation with the editor;
- Embrace digital media platforms and post content to website and Facebook page;
- Be familiar with Associated Press style and maintain consistent style throughout publication;
- Coordinate the placement and representation of print advertising;
- Supervise the production of special sections, inserts and partnership newspapers;
- Keep abreast of relevant state and national Baptist news;
- Have a reputation for accuracy and fairness in reporting and working well with others under deadline pressure.

Requirements: College degree with minimum of two-year’s experience in writing and editing for print and digital publications, expertise in shooting photos (videos a plus), flexibility to travel statewide on assignments, understanding of Southern Baptist churches and the Kentucky Baptist Convention.
