Hello from the Peace Corps Midwest Region. We are reaching out to let you and your students, particularly graduating seniors, know about program openings and career path options with international Peace Corps service. Feel free to forward this email to your student contacts.

For Students:

Accepting Applications Now for Assignment Departures in 2015
Peace Corps is filling programs for the first part of 2015. Apply by June 1 for the opportunity to be interviewed for assignment options after graduation.

The sooner we receive your application, the sooner you can choose from available assignments that match your skills, interests, preferences and career goals. See program areas where graduates like you are needed around the globe: peacecorps.gov/openings.

In Peace Corps, you’ll work with local communities and other organizations to address important global issues, such as youth education, disease prevention, food security, gender equality, economic development, environmental conservation and more.
