Hagan Memorial Library provides instruction and assistance for using library resources, reference materials, and interlibrary loan services.

Library Orientation and Instruction Classes

The library instruction session “Introduction to Library Resources” is offered twice each bi-term to all students who want to learn strategies for using the Library’s databases and resources. These sessions provide:

- Library research strategies and processes
- Library database search techniques
- Use of e-books and streaming video collections

Borrowing and Use Agreement

Hagan Memorial Library participates in the Borrowing and Use Agreement with other Kentucky academic libraries. UC Students with a valid university photo ID may be allowed to borrow and/or use resources from other academic libraries in Kentucky. Use and borrowing privileges may differ between host libraries.

Online Catalog (UC Cat)

By accessing the online catalog, users are able to search all the available library holdings and access the collection of e-books.

Users can search the UC Cat by author, title, and keyword for:

- ➔ Books
- ➔ E-books
- ➔ Streaming Audio and Video
- ➔ Media Resources
- ➔ Government Documents
- ➔ Music Scores
- ➔ UC Dissertations

Hagan Memorial Library provides online access to all users for the following discipline-appropriate learning and information resources:

- Databases and Subject Guides
- Databases A – Z
- Government Documents Guide
- Films on Demand
- Alexander Street Video
- The Chronicle of Higher Education

Can't find what you're looking for? Locate specific journal holdings through databases and microform by using:

- Search for Periodicals by Title/Full Text Finder

Access to Electronic Resources

Off-campus users can access our complete collection of electronic resources with a valid university email account username and password. Your username and password will enable you access by connecting through the Hagan Memorial Research Gateway login page.

Interlibrary Loan

All faculty, staff, and students who wish to borrow materials not available in Hagan Memorial Library collections and databases, can submit a request by using the Interlibrary Loan request form on the library's homepage. This Interlibrary Loan request service is also available to all off-campus faculty, staff, and students who wish to borrow materials from the circulating collections.

There is no fee when borrowing materials. However, the user will be responsible for the postal expenses in mailing the material back to Hagan Memorial Library.

The general loan period for off-campus faculty, staff, and students wishing to borrow circulating material is 4 weeks from the checkout date.

Interlibrary loan items that are borrowed from an outside library can be requested to be renewed through the lending library. All these renewal requests are determined by the lending library.

Digital copies of non-circulating material can be emailed if available.

Binding Services

Binding services are available for students completing their dissertations. Check with the program director or library for more information.
